

BIBLE

CONFERENCE

MARCH 16–21, 2008

Our desire each year as we approach the annual Bible Conference is that the increased exposure to the Word of God would strengthen our hearts and change us to be more like Him.

I trust that you will be able to join us for what has long been the highlight of the year at BJU. The faithful preaching of the Word, soul-stirring music and encouraging fellowship will make this a week you won't want to miss.

Sincerely,

Stephen Jones
President

THINGS TO DO

WHILE AT BJU

The days surrounding Bible Conference are packed with things to do and see while you're visiting BJU.

Events

THE BARBER OF SEVILLE

March 4, 6, 8—The University Opera Association presents Rossini's sparkling comic opera sung in Italian. Enjoy the foibles of old Dr. Bartolo, the schemes of Rosina and the clever tricks of Figaro, the wily barber, in this delightful production. The performance will be conducted by Jay-Martin Pinner and directed by Jeffrey Stegall. For ticket information, call (864) 770-1372.

OPPORTUNITY DAYS—MARCH 13-14

Experience college for yourself! Fun and informative activities give teens a fast-paced, close-up encounter with university life. Request a brochure.

PARENTS DAY

March 19—On Wednesday, the University honors the parents of current BJU and BJA students. Campus Store discounts are available to all parents, and meals in the dining common are "on the house" for parents accompanied by their children who are residence hall students. Parents are also welcome to visit their children's residence hall rooms.

PASTORS AND CHRISTIAN WORKERS LUNCHEON

March 19—The University invites all full-time pastors, youth pastors, evangelists, missionaries and their wives to be our guests at a luncheon Wednesday at noon in the Red Room of the dining common. Since space is limited, tickets are required and may be picked up at the Information Desk in the Administration Building from 8 a.m. on Monday until noon on Wednesday.

ALUMNI DAY

March 20—On Thursday, BJU alumni are especially honored. Every alumnus will receive a memento of the day at the Alumni Office (located in the Student Center). Members of the Alumni Association will also receive added discounts at the Campus Store, free use of the fitness centers and a free meal in the dining common (present your membership card at the Alumni Office to receive your free meal ticket). Museum & Gallery admission is also free to alumni who present their membership cards. The annual Alumni Association meeting and reception will be held immediately after the evening service (Davis Field House).

LIVING GALLERY

March 27, 4:30 & 7:30 p.m.

March 28, 4:30 & 7:30 p.m.

March 29, 2, 4:30 & 7:30 p.m.

You're invited to attend the Museum & Gallery's eleventh annual Living Gallery, an extraordinary presentation that weaves together art, music and drama. Striking re-creations of artistic masterpieces are brought to life by real people in unique "living pictures." This year's program, "This Is My Word," emphasizes the power of God's life-changing Word through the remarkable medium of illuminated manuscripts.

For the first time, the Living Gallery production will feature two illuminated manuscript pages from the Book of Hours joined by da Vinci's Last Supper and Versailles's The Resurrection of Christ by Charles de la Fosse. Make plans to attend this inspirational program; you'll experience an unforgettable Easter celebration. For ticket information, call (864) 770-1372.

The Museum & Gallery is open from 2 to 7 p.m. on performance days for guests to see other great masterworks of art. Your Living Gallery ticket grants you free admission to M&G on performance days.

HERITAGE SOCIETY LUNCHEON

March 21 – The annual Heritage Society Luncheon will be held in the Red Room of the dining common at 11:45 a.m. on Friday. A shuttle will be available in front of FMA directly after the morning service to take Heritage Society members to the dining common. The Heritage Society honors those who have provided for BJU or one of the tax-exempt organizations friendly to BJU in their estate plans. If you would like information on becoming a member of the Heritage Society, please contact the Advancement Office at ext. 1776.

ATTRACTIONS

The following attractions are available at various times during Bible Conference week. See the individual entry or the schedule for specific times, and take in as many as possible while you're here.

MUSEUM & GALLERY AT BOB JONES UNIVERSITY

Visit our world-class collection to see art and artifacts dating from Bible times through the 19th century. Thirty galleries feature over 400 paintings of European sacred art by the Old Masters. M&G is open Tuesday through Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m., and a modest admission fee is charged. This season the following activities are offered:

- Music with the Masters

March 20 at 3 p.m., March 28 at 3 p.m., March 29 at 2:30 & 4:30 p.m.

Make plans to spend an afternoon enjoying M&G's Old Master paintings and a live instrumental performance by the University's string ensemble, Collegium Musicum, as the galleries echo with the poignant melodies of Bach and Mendelssohn.

Fee: Free with general admission

- ArtSpeak Demystified

Enter an art museum and questions abound.

Where did the art come from? How was it made?

Who owned it? Is it original? Visit ArtSpeak

Demystified and you'll find a relevant, understandable and intriguing exploration of the art facts everyone wants to know. Look at the backs of paintings and discover their travel history.

Learn about how specific works journeyed from the artist's studio to M&G's galleries. Take a tour that unravels the process involved in creating different types of art media.

Fee: Free with general admission

- Exploring Rome with Art

Join Artechus on an exciting exploration through ancient Rome. Children ages 6-12 will be delighted to enter the streets of Rome. While in Rome, children will enjoy piecing together a mosaic, matching Rome's landmarks to the correct place on a geographical map or dressing up in traditional Roman garb. Students will also learn about Roman numerals and discover clues to Rome's glorious past. Shopping in the Forum will please boys and girls alike while teaching them about the highly developed mathematical system perfected by this ancient civilization. Join Artechus and unearth the treasures and secrets of the Roman Empire!

Fee: Free with general admission

- Easter Scavenger Hunt

February 12–March 30

Children 6 and older are invited to participate in an Easter-themed scavenger hunt. This exciting activity takes 30–45 minutes and is designed to captivate children's interest and expose them to Old Master paintings in a friendly manner.

Fee: Free with general admission.

MACK LIBRARY

Open Mon, Tue, Wed, Fri, 3–5 p.m.; Thurs, 1–5 p.m.

- Jerusalem Chamber—a reproduction of the room in London's Westminster Abbey where parts of the King James Version of the Bible were translated. Serves as a display area for BJU's collection of rare Bibles.
- Archives Room—a fascinating array of material dealing with the history of Bob Jones University.
- Earle W. Sargent Boardroom—This elaborate room features hand-carved pilasters, Tiffany stained-glass windows and chandeliers from the Astor Hotel in New York.

IMAGES OF LIGHT

Don't miss Unusual Films' all-digital, wide-screen production—a high-tech look at the entire spectrum of campus life in a colorful, action-packed, 30-minute presentation in the Grace Levinson Chapel. No tickets are necessary.

SEMINARY AND EVANGELISM CENTER

The Bob Jones Jr. Memorial Seminary and Evangelism Center is a world-class center for training seminary students. The beautiful rotunda contains multimedia displays, memorabilia, and a mural and sculptures dealing with evangelism, preacher training and missions.
